

the NYC GIFTED & TALENTED Symposium

Saturday, October 26 @ NYU's Kimmel Center

CLICK FOR TICKETS >
www.nycgt.org

Parents, Teachers, School Leaders & Ed Tech Experts of Pre-K- 8th graders: IT'S TIME TO COLLABORATE, INNOVATE & EDUCATE for NYC's High Potential Youth

Considering a G&T Program for your child? Want a richer understanding of what it means to support a child who exhibits high potential? Or just looking for great local & Ed Tech resources? The Parents of Accelerated Learners, NYC (PALNYC) in partnership with the Center for Mathematical Talent at NYU's Courant Institute is pleased to present a groundbreaking one-day symposium for parents, educators, education technology specialists and mental health professionals, The NYC Gifted and Talented Symposium on October 26, 2013 at NYU's Kimmel Center in New York City.

The NYC Gifted & Talented Symposium features:

- Keynote by Carol S. Dweck, author of Mindset: The New Psychology of Success, and the expert on motivation
- Sessions on Talent Development, Social and Emotional Development, Navigating the G&T Process & Supporting Twice Exceptional and Culturally Diverse Learners.
- A Curated Exhibit Hall with a sampling of NYC's best schools, programs and services

- Ed Tech Discovery Showcase to explore web and app-based learning tools for kids, Pre-K-8th grade
- The Thought Leaders Roundtable with NYC's most knowledgeable & influential leaders in education.

Featured Workshops: The Right Fit: Finding the Program for Your Child; Supporting Your Child's Math Abilities; 30 Apps in 30 Minutes; Advocating for Culturally Diverse Learners; Getting In- The G&T Process & Admissions; What is Twice Exceptional?; Supporting Talent Development: The Arts & 21st Century Skills

Featured Speakers

Elissa F. Brown, Director, Hunter College Center for Gifted Studies • Matthew Cruger, Child Mind Institute • Carolyn Kottmeyer, HOAGIES Gifted Education Page • Janet Jackson • Julia Osborn • Nathan Levy, New Jersey Association of Gifted Children • Richard Gallagher, Child Study Center, NYU • Randall Collins, Speyer Institute & Former Director of the Hunter College Campus Schools Lori Evans, Child Study Center, NYU Robin Aronow, School Search NYC • Ying Lu & Sharon Weinberg, NYU Steinhardt • Micaela Bracamonte, The

Carol S. Dweck, PhD, is one of the world's leading researchers in the field of motivation. Her work has highlighted the critical role of mindsets in business, sports and education. Dr. Joy Lawson Davis author of the book, 'Bright, Talented & Black' shares three decades of lessons learned with culturally and linguistically diverse learners.

Lang School • Susan Schwartz, Child Mind Institute • Pooja Vekaria • Bridget Johnson, Prep for Prep • Igal Kesselman, Lucy Moses School of Music • Liz Albert, Johns Hopkins Center for Talented Youth • Elizabeth Perelstein, School Search Solutions • Mark Saul & Sian Zelbo, Center for Mathematical Talent @ NYU's Courant Institute • Donna Taylor, Brooklyn School of Inquiry • Connie Coulianos & Esther Kogan, Speyer Legacy School • Chantal Stevens, A Better Chance • Lorenley Baez, Oliver Scholars • Sophia Hollander, Wall Street Journal +

Co-Sponsors